Dimitri Myers

Email: DimitriMyers61@gmail.com
Phone: (360)-464-8946
Portfolio: DimitriMyers.com

Front End Web Developer | Creative Content Specialist

Education
Washington State University Vancouver, Graduating Fall 2020
B.A. degree in Digital Technology & Culture, Minor in History
Games Studies and Design Certification

Technical Skills
Programming and Coding: JavaScript, Bootstrap4, HTML5, CSS3, SASS, WordPress
Digital Narrative Environments: Unity, Unreal Engine 3, Twine, Tumblr
Digital Design: Adobe Illustrator and Photoshop
Project Management and Collaboration: Adobe XD, Slack, Discord, Basecamp3, Zoom, Skype, Dropbox
Content Design: Autodesk Maya, Premiere Pro, After Effects, Garage Band, Audacity

Professional Experience
Electronic Literature Repository Redesign: A New Face (2020) Working as a UX/UI Web Development team member during Phase 2 of redevelopment of a repository of 2108 works held in 26 collections of born-digital media for the International Arts Organization, and Electronic Literature Organization
URL: https://elo-repository.org/
- Redesigned site in Adobe XD
- Coded site using HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript, SASS, and Bootstrap4

Mistle Heim: A Lone Road (2019) A Twine based digital story focusing on various elements of creative writing
URL: https://dtc-wsuv.org/dmyers19/MistleHeim.html
- Designed site in Twine
- Coded site using HTML5, CSS3 in Twine

Elgaroth Dungeons (2018) Follows a small band of characters through a Dungeons & Dragons themed adventure to solve a quest, and save the people of Elgaroth
URL: https://dtc-wsuv.org/dmyers19/ElgarothDungeons.pptx
- Designed story in PowerPoint
- Wrote story in PowerPoint

The Birth of a Legend (2018) Creates a brief guide for Dungeons & Dragons based stories by introducing them to the basic concepts of the game
URL:https://dtc-wsuv.org/dmyers19/narrative/
- Coded site using HTML5, CSS3, and Parallax

Hobbies
Whitewater Rafting, Ultimate Frisbee, Hiking Mount St. Helens