COURSE SUCCESS FACTORS:
	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Punctuality: You are responsible for getting to class on time OR signing in and engaging in in remote sessions. Most announcements and lecture material will be provided at the beginning of our meetings. If you are late, you are responsible for getting the information from your classmates. Additionally, you will be deducted points towards your overall grade if it becomes a consistent issue. Three classes late = 1 absence. IF you have a circumstance where you will need to be consistently late, please let me know (i.e. work, child care etc).</li> <li>2. Attendance: You need to be in class or an arranged remote session, to get all of the information required to find success in this course. Class notes will only get you so far. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• If you miss a class or meeting date, you are responsible for talking to your classmates and reviewing your lecture notes to get yourself caught up. Your homework for the given class is still due if there is any!</li> <li>• If you are sick, please do not come to class (if we're physically meeting that week) and infect others. Utilize online class resources to reach out to classmates. If you enter the classroom sick, I will respectfully request that you go home and get well.</li> <li>• In the case of unexcused absences, students cannot makeup the work. Students missing three or more unexcused meetings will be asked to drop the course and retake it when they are able.</li> <li>• Absences can be excused, and homework can be submitted late ONLY IF you provide supporting documentation for your absence. Excused absences are at the discretion of the instructor!</li> </ul> Steps to take if you miss a meeting are to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Email me PRIOR to the start time, letting me know why you are or will be absent.</li> <li>• Turn in homework due for that day (if there is any) by emailing me for submission instructions OR submitting to the basecamp account OR If the file size is small enough, email me content. The time stamp must be before or during our meeting time in order to get credit. Anything received after will not be credited.</li> <li>• Talk to your classmates regarding what you missed and be sure to get assignments due for the next week. You are still responsible for that content.</li> </ul> Presentations, Midterm &amp; Final Evaluations: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• You may NOT miss project presentations dates if/when we have them. Doing so will equal an automatic failure for the project or activity on that given date. If for some reason you cannot make one of these times, you must contact me WELL BEFORE the class that you need to miss. Excuses given after the fact will not be accepted.</li> <li>• During these critiques, participation is expected.</li> </ul> </li> <li>3. Receptiveness to Feedback and Critique: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• You will be expected to take notes during moments of critique.</li> <li>• Do not disparage your own work</li> <li>• Excuses will not be tolerated, as they will not be acceptable in a professional environment either.</li> <li>• Remember, you are here to learn and receiving feedback and critique is a big part of that.</li> <li>• Ask questions! Don't assume things.</li> </ul> </li> <li>4. Getting Assignments in on time (I.e. Hitting Deadlines):</li> </ol>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This is crucial. You are going into a field where deadlines are extremely important. If you consistently miss those, you will not maintain employment. So, break bad habits now or don't start them to begin with.</li> <li>I WILL NOT ACCEPT LATE WORK!!! If you do not turn in your homework when it is due or hit critical deadlines you will not pass this course. Do not procrastinate, this is a killer. Exceptions can be made in extenuating circumstances at the discretion of the instructor.</li> </ul> 5. Responsibility and Accountability: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>As adults, you are responsible for managing your time wisely, asking questions as needed, and being aware of due dates and requirements for assignments. Excuses will not be accepted.</li> <li>Back up your work! Failure of computer software and or Hardware will not be accepted as an extenuating circumstance for late assignments, so back up your work daily and save in iterations!</li> </ul> 6. Proactive Learning: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>I am certainly a resource for you; however, I will also be expecting you to be proactive in finding solutions to problems or questions that you have. This means, utilize google, online tutorials, forums, the library, tutors and most importantly each other!!</li> <li>As a professional you will often be asked to do things that you don't know how to do. You will be expected to solve problems and find answers. This will be no different here.</li> </ul> 7. Communication: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>If you are lost or need assistance with materials (after you've made some attempt at seeking answers on your own) please email me, ping me on basecamp or talk to me in class. If I don't hear from you, I am assuming that things are going well.</li> <li>Networking: In each of your courses you are networking whether you realize it or not. Your instructors and classmates could become future coworkers. They could be instrumental in job recommendations. Conduct yourselves with that in mind.</li> </ul> 8. Come to Class Prepared: You are REQUIRED to bring all course related materials to class with you each week. This includes notes, hard drives, thumb drives and course projects. 9. Have Fun: This is the best one! You are going into a really cool field!!
UNIVERSITY POLICIES
	Academic Integrity is the cornerstone of the university and will be strongly enforced in this course. Any Student found in violation of the academic integrity policy will be given an "F" for the course and will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct. For additional information about WSU's Academic Integrity policy/procedures, please contact 360.546.9573.
PLAGIARISM:
	"Plagiarism, presenting the writings, images or paraphrased ideas of another as one's own, is strictly prohibited. Properly documented excerpts from others' works, when they are limited to an appropriate amount of the total length of a student's paper, are permissible when used to support a researched argument."

DISABILITY ACCOMODATIONS
	Accommodations may be available if you need the in order to fully participate in this class because of a disability. Accommodations may take some time to implement so it is critical that you contact Disability Services, located in the Student Resource Center on the Lower Level of the Student Services Center 360.546.9138
EMERGENCY NOTIFICAION SYSTEM:
	WSU has made an emergency notification system available for faculty, students and staff. Please register at myWSU with emergency contact information (cell, email, text, etc). You may have been prompted to complete emergency contact information when registering for classes on RONet. In the event of a building evacuation, a map at each classroom entrance shows the evacuation point for reach building. Please refer to it. Finally, in case of class cancellation campus-wide, please check local media, the WSU Vancouver web page and/or http://www.flashalert.net/. Individual class cancellations may be made at the discretion of the instructor. Each individual is expected to make the best decision for their personal circumstances, taking safety into account. Safety plan website: http://safetyplan.vancouver.wsu.edu/ . Classroom and campus safety are of paramount importance at Washington State University, and are the shared responsibility of the entire campus population. WSU urges students to follow the “Alert, Assess, Act” protocol for all types of emergencies and the “Run, Hide, Fight” response for an active shooter incident. Remain ALERT (through direct observation or emergency notification), ASSESS your specific situation, and ACT in the most appropriate way to assure you own safety (and the safety of others if you are able).
