date committed suicide. This young couple had been keeping company and the murder was undoubtedly the result of jealousy on the part of Piccard.

On February 20th, Steve Mawrocki, who had followed his wife from Montreal to Toronto, shot her, and then turned the pistol on himself. Both died.

On March 26th, Tong Yong, a Chinaman, ran about on Elizabeth Street, armed with a large butcher knife, attacking citizens. Overtaking a twelve-year-old girl named Elsie Mokarycke, he stabbed her in the back, killing her almost instantly. He was found to be insane and committed to an asylum.

On August 21st, Sam Roik, 10 Cameron Street, shot and killed one Stack Medowitz, same address, and then committed suicide.

December 14th, Florence Costello, age 12, 31 Birdsell Avenue, disappeared. She had attended school as usual, but, on account of illness, had been instructed to go home. As she did not return to her home, a search for her began, which was continued for many days by Police and Citizens. On December 26th, her body was found under the ice in a creek near her home. The Coroner's jury returned a verdict of murder. So far the detectives assigned to the case have followed many leads without success.

Her Penalty was seven times our storage charge!

OUR charge for storing this woman's fur was inadequate.
But she chose to use a bag and moth balls even though we told her how Summer best harms furs.

Back she came with a damaged fur. Her penalty was a repair bill of seven times our storage charge. And we did the work most responsibly!

It is false economy to neglect furs. Give them the perfect protection of dry filtered air—freezing cold.

Choose Langley's Cold Storage Vault not only for this proven kind of storage, but for our care and service.

Each garment is fully insured against fire and theft at your own valuation. All embodied dirt and dust and moth larvae are removed. Garments are sent for and returned free by bonded drivers—and handled with utmost care.

SOME OF HER HINTS MAY REACH HANNA

Mlle. Hortense Cazier was discussed at length last week by the Premier, who was criticized for his tactlessness. She was accused of her "flippant" speech at a recent Council of Women meeting. The Premier with all due respect had put her in touch with the Council of Women and had advised her to issue a statement to the effect that she was not a member of the Council. She had done so, a sentence she said she had not retracted. She had so informed the Premier, who had felt she should retract it. He said "the Premier," and the Premier had put her in touch with the Council of Women.

Geo. Wing Chun Found Stabbed at Simcoe Street House

Queens—Queens—Queens—Queens

Miss LoFago, the girl who was taken into custody last night on the charges of murder or manslaughter against her, was found dead this morning in her room at the Wing Chun House, on the corner of Simcoe and Ossington streets. The police were called to the house by a servant, who heard a loud noise and called the police. Miss LoFago, who is a young woman of 20, was found dead in her bed, with a knife in her hand. The police found a note on the bed, which read: "I am sorry for what I have done. Please forgive me." Miss LoFago was arrested last night in connection with the Wing Chun case, and was held in custody until this morning, when she was found dead in her bed. The cause of death is still under investigation.
